

PACCAR FINANCIAL: ONE PARTNER, FULL SERVICE

DAF USED TRUCKS A fleet is often made up of new and used trucks, which is why PACCAR Financial offers attractive financing options to suit all ages of DAF trucks*. Our range of finance products and modern automated processes will keep your administrative burden to an absolute minimum. Engineered to last and with superior build quality, operators recognize that a used DAF truck is an excellent choice. Available from authorised Dealers in the DAF network, by choosing from PACCAR Financial's range of finance and leasing packages, you will benefit from our expertise in offering flexible solutions tailored to your business needs.

TRAILERS PACCAR Financial is just the right finance partner to cater for the needs of your entire fleet. This includes all your trailers and/or specific bodies – another area in which you can immediately benefit from our in-depth knowledge of this highly differentiated market. If you require customised finance solutions for any of the main trailer brands, PACCAR Financial is the right place for you. We always base our assessment on our factual knowledge of the market. Once again, single-sourcing of all financial products will help reduce your administrative costs.

PACCAR FINANCIAL OFFERS TAILOR-MADE FINANCING OPTIONS FOR ALL DAF TRUCK/TRAILER COMBINATIONS:

• Temperature Controlled Body	• Container Transport
• Box Body	• Bulk Tanker
• Curtainsider	• Tipper Body
• Swap systems	• Special and/or heavy transport

* The conditions for lease products may vary from country to country.

FULL SERVICE PACCAR Financial can offer you an extensive range of additional services, allowing you to reap all the benefits of the expertise and service that characterise DAF's dealer network. For instance, you can opt for an attractive repair and maintenance contract that can be linked to your lease contract with PACCAR Financial on request. In various countries, this option is offered as part of a full service lease contract and, depending on local regulations, it can be expanded to include additional services such as vehicle insurance etc. In this way PACCAR Financial can offer you a one-stop-shop of financial services.

CONTACT Would you like to know how PACCAR Financial can help you find the right finance solution if you are thinking of replacing or expanding your fleet? PACCAR Financial has a number of offices spread throughout Europe. To benefit from our services, you can also contact your own DAF dealer. Our specialists will be pleased to discuss the many different options available to you, in which your company's interests always come first. PACCAR FINANCIAL: YOUR BUSINESS SUCCESS IS WHAT DRIVES US

The financing of your fleet plays a part in shaping your company's success. Our financial specialists can offer you bespoke solutions thanks to their extensive knowledge of DAF trucks and the transport industry. These solutions are fully tailored to your specific needs and preferences and are available for both new and used DAF trucks, bodies and trailers.

FIT FOR PURPOSE PACCAR Financial is exclusively dedicated to the transport sector. We support the sales of our sister company, DAF Trucks Limited, through the DAF dealer network. They know the transport industry and have the technical knowledge to be able to offer the DAF truck that is right for your business. Whether it be a financial lease, operating lease or hire purchase, we offer tailor-made solutions to optimise the funding of your fleet. All this is available at a competitive cost — after all, your business success is what drives us.

A PERSONAL TOUCH We tailor our financing options to suit the business needs of our customers. The specialists at PACCAR Financial will give you the individual support that has become a hallmark of DAF. Thanks to our exclusive focus on the transport sector, we know your business, so you can rely on the support from specialists who have an in-depth knowledge of and great experience in offering competitive financing solutions that are right for your business. Based on the requirements and preferences you specify, we will offer you flexible finance options to suit your specific transport needs and budget.

HASSLE-FREE If you are considering taking out a lease agreement for four years, you may in fact be better off running the lease for 50 months. Working with you this is the kind of help we can give to assist with your business planning. Or, conversely, we might discuss a shorter lease with you if, for example, you are going to operate the truck with a high annual distance. We can also offer attractive finance options for used trucks or a mixed fleet as well as additional services, such as Repair and Maintenance. Sourcing all this with just one company will allow you to ease your company's administrative burden.

SECURITY Both PACCAR Financial and DAF are part of PACCAR Inc, one of the major worldwide truck manufacturing companies which has been a leading name in the international truck industry for over a century. PACCAR is a financially strong global player which makes them a reliable finance partner and gives you long-term peace of mind. PACCAR Financial is one of the few captive finance companies in the automotive sector to have a superior international credit rating of A+.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE PACCAR Financial has a range of flexible tailor-made solutions to suit every kind of business*. Whether you use just one or two trucks for local distribution or operate a large international fleet, PACCAR Financial will always try to find a solution that best fits your particular operation. With a close eye on the future, we place our focus on your long-term success. PACCAR Financial is the partner of choice for international clients all over Europe because our specialists speak their language, know their business and add a personal touch that has become a hallmark of their service. To reap these benefits, either get in touch with your DAF dealer now or contact our specialists directly.
